Sustainability Manager – FIS Nordic World Ski Championships Falun 2027

Do you want to be part of making history?

From February 24 to March 7, 2027, the world's elite in Ski Jumping, Nordic Combined, and Cross-Country skiing will gather in Falun. The FIS Nordic World Ski Championships Falun 2027 will be one of Sweden's largest sporting events in years – an international celebration filled with snow, energy, and passion.

We are on the brink of something historic, and now we're looking for someone who wants to be part of shaping it.

This is more than just a job. It's a chance to make a difference, create lifelong memories – and help put a World Championship on the map.

About the role

As Sustainability Manager, you will lead the development, implementation, and follow-up of a comprehensive and ambitious sustainability programme for the Championships. Your mission is to ensure that the event contributes to positive environmental, social, and economic outcomes, both locally and nationally.

You will be responsible for sustainability reporting before, during, and after the event. In this role, you will serve as a spokesperson on sustainability matters with media, partners, and the public. Your work will also include developing educational materials and conducting training for staff and volunteers. A key part of the role is close collaboration with partners, suppliers, local government, regional authorities, and environmental organizations, as well as ensuring compliance with laws, guidelines, and sustainability requirements set by the International Ski and Snowboard Federation (FIS).

About you

Requirements:

- Relevant academic degree in environmental science, sustainable development, project management, or equivalent
- Minimum 5 years of experience in sustainability work within large events, sports, municipalities, or the business sector
- Proven experience in leading projects and working with a wide range of stakeholder experience
- Strong knowledge in environmental certification, climate impact assessments, accessibility, and gender equality initiatives
- Fluency in both Swedish and English (spoken and written)

Merites:

- Previous experience from major sporting events or the public sector

Personal qualities

- Structured and strategic
- Inspiring leader and strong communicator

- Proactive and high integrity
- Solution-oriented and collaborative
- Comfortable working in a fast-paced, complex, and temporary project environment

Employment Terms

Fixed-term contract starting by agreement.

Location: Falun, Sweden
